PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Reference is made to your letter dated April 21, 1954, referring to my letter of April 5, 1954, and to Lieutenant General Cabell's report of March 27, 1954. You requested that we continue to send you reports from the source referred to in these letters.

Your attention is again directed to the last paragraph of Lieutenant General Cabell's report of March 27, 1954, which characterizes the report from this source as either a "fabrication or the product of a paper mill, which conclusion has been applied to many similar disseminations in the past from apparently the same source." In view of this characterization, I am still of the opinion that no useful purpose will be served by this Bureau's disseminating to your Agency information which is received from this source in the future.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I have your letter of 5 April 1954 in which you make reference to your letter of 16 March 1954, with enclosed intelligence memorandum, and Lt. General Cabell's report to you of 27 March 1954, which was sent during my absence from Washington.

The fact that we found certain of the statements in this particular report of somewhat doubtful credibility does not imply that we would henceforth desire to be cut off from the distribution of future reports from this particular agent which you might normally make. It has been our experience that useful agents often make reports of somewhat doubtful credibility, particularly when they are dealing with areas outside their direct field of knowledge. Also, occasionally, agents are used by the Soviet unwittingly to spread information which they desire us to believe. It is our practice, and I am sure it is yours, particularly in the case of agents who have proved their value, not to reach negative judgments on the basis of isolated disseminations.

We would, therefore, appreciate it if you will kindly continue to send us reports from this agent which relate to matters of foreign intelligence.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

The comments contained in the letter dated March 27, 1954, from Acting Director Lieutenant General C. P. Cabell relating to my letter of March 16, 1954, and attachment, have been reviewed.

It is noted it is the conclusion of your Agency that the contents of the report submitted to you with my letter of March 16, 1954, is a fabrication or the product of a paper mill and that this same conclusion has been applied by your Agency to many similar reports from our same source in the past.

As pointed out in my letter of March 16, the data was forwarded to you for information and was obtained by an informant who has reported reliable information in the past. While this Bureau is not in a position to evaluate this information, I wish to advise that this informant has also furnished considerable information concerning Soviet intelligence activities in the United States. In many instances this latter information has been corroborated through other sources and has been found to be accurate.

It is believed that no useful purpose will be served by this Bureau in making any future dissemination to your Agency of information received from this source.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Dulles:

The attached memorandum is for your information. As indicated therein the information was obtained by an informant who has reported reliable information in the past. I am unable to further evaluate this information other than to state that the informant is known to have been in a position to obtain this type of data. It is expected that he will also obtain valuable information in the future and, for his protection, it is requested that the attached memorandum be treated as Top Secret.

This information has also been furnished to the Attorney General; Honorable Robert Cutler, Special Assistant to the President; Dr. Walter F. Colby, Director of Intelligence, Atomic Energy Commission; Brigadier General Edward H. Porter, USAF, Deputy Director for Intelligence, The Joint Staff, Joint Chiefs of Staff; Major General Joseph F. Carroll, Director of Special Investigations, The Inspector General, USAF; Major General Arthur G. Trudeau, Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2, Department of the Army; Rear Admiral Carl F. IN REPLY, PLEASE REFER TO

FILE NO. _____

March 16, 1954

(. The following information was furnished by an informant who has given reliable information in the past. It purports to represent statements made during December, 1953, and January and February, 1954, by a Soviet official stationed in Europe who is believed to be attached to the Soviet Ministry of Internal Affairs (MVD).

2. According to the informant, the Soviet official stated that some universities in Russia have more German than Russian students. After appropriate screening, the best German students are trained and given important positions, but they are watched closely. Most of these students are electrical engineers, chemists, and physicists, and by the end of 1955 there will be a million engineers in Russia.

3. The official stated that Bulganin and Zhukov are not "educated technicians" and may be soon replaced. Zhukov is hated by Premier Malenkov. (Bulganin is believed to be N. A. Bulganin, Minister of Defense, and Zhukov is believed to be G. K. Zhukov, First Deputy Minister of Defense in Russia.)

4. The official also reportedly stated that there is a "big fight" in the Soviet Union as to who will head the atomic work. Nobody wants the job since Beria left so many "odds and ends." Everyone is refusing responsibility, both for the past and for the future. The Soviets have developed good "single pieces" but have not been able to get mass production of atomic weapons.

5. The informant reported that, according to the Soviet official, the Russians have an organized campaign to win back Tito through utilization of other people in Yugoslavia. They are also locating Moslem priests in Yugoslavia who speak French and who are to be trained and sent to North Morocco.

6. The official also stated that Mikoyan (probably A. I. Mikoyan, Soviet Minister of Trade) is the last remaining live "real buddy" of Beria, and Malenkov has been unable to get anything on him. Malenkov will tempt the English and French to trade with the USSR, and in that connection Mikoyan will overpay for something and will be replaced by a Malenkov man.

TOP SECRET

The official stated that "Kousnetzoff," the Soviet Ambassador to China, had not been too successful. MAO Tse-tung (Chairman of the Central People's Government of the People's Republic of China) thinks he is better than Marx and Lenin. HO Chi-minh (leader of the Viet Minh in Indochina) prefers to be considered an oriental Lincoln. He and MAO hate each other. HO Chi-minh insists on being present at the forthcoming Geneva Conference of Foreign Ministers, but CHOU En-Lai (Premier and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the People's Republic of China) will not let him attend because he believes that, if American Secretary of State Dulles in casual conversation compares HO Chi-minh with Lincoln, HO Chi-minh would "give everything" to Dulles, and the Americans and French would no longer need an army in Indochina.

The informant also advised that, according to the Soviet official, Molotov was criticized by his superiors for his lack of success at the Berlin Conference of Foreign Ministers.

March 16, 1954

The following information was furnished by an informant who has given reliable information in the past. It purports to represent statements made during December, 1953, and January and February, 1954, by a Soviet official stationed in Europe who is believed to be attached to the Soviet Ministry of Internal Affairs (MVD).

According to the informant, the Soviet official stated that some universities in Russia have more German than Russian students. After appropriate screening, the best German students are trained and given important positions, but they are watched closely. Most of these students are electrical engineers, chemists, and physicists, and by the end of 1955 there will be a million engineers in Russia.

The official stated that Bulganin and Zhukov are not "educated technicians" and may be soon replaced. Zhukov is hated by Premier Malenkov. (Bulganin is believed to be N. A. Bulganin, Minister of Defense, and Zhukov is believed to be G. K. Zhukov, First Deputy Minister of Defense in Russia.)

The official also reportedly stated that there is a "big fight" in the Soviet Union as to who will head the atomic work. Nobody wants the job since Beria left so many "odds and ends." Everyone is refusing responsibility, both for the past and for the future. The Soviets have developed good "single pieces" but have not been able to get mass production of atomic weapons.

The informant reported that, according to the Soviet official, the Russians have an organized campaign to win back Tito through utilization of other people in Yugoslavia. They are also locating Moslem priests in Yugoslavia who speak French and who are to be trained and sent to North Morocco.

The official also stated that Mikoyan (probably A. I. Mikoyan, Soviet Minister of Trade) is the last remaining live "real buddy" of Beria, and Malenkov has been unable to get anything on him. Malenkov will tempt the English and French to trade with the USSR, and in that connection Mikoyan will overpay for something and will be replaced by a Malenkov man.

The official stated that "Kousnetzoff," the Soviet Ambassador to China, had not been too successful. MAO Tse-tung (Chairman of the Central People's Government of the People's Republic of China) thinks he is better than Marx and Lenin. HO Chi-minh (leader of the Viet Minh in Indochina) prefers to be considered an oriental Lincoln. He and MAO hate each other. HO Chi-minh insists on being present at the forthcoming Geneva Conference of Foreign Ministers, but CHOU En-Lai (Premier and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the People's Republic of China) will not let him attend because he believes that, if American Secretary of State Dulles in casual conversation compares HO Chi-minh with Lincoln, HO Chi-minh would "give everything" to Dulles, and the Americans and French would no longer need an army in Indochina.

The informant also advised that, according to the Soviet official, Molotov was criticized by his superiors for his lack of success at the Berlin Conference of Foreign Ministers.
